that he was in need of funds.
Who the murdered man was, who the tramp was, or where the latter has gone, are questions that remain to be solved. It is believed however, that the tramp went to Petersburg, but so far no clue to his whereabouts has been ascertained. Justice Robertson, as soon as he had gathered the facts in the case, telegraphed them, together with a description of the missing man, to the chief-of-police of Richmond, Manchester and Petersburg, and James White, a colored railroad corter in Chester, was sent to Petersburg to confer with the authorities there in case the latter should discover anyone answering to the description of the missing tramp.

No one in Chester remembers having seen the murdered man before. He had rather an intelligent face, weighed about 130 pounds, and was well-dressed. The place where the deed was commit-ted was an spen one, being close to the railroad, near the foot of an embankment about thirty feet high, and comparatively unsheltered by underbrush. Commonwealth's Attorney Cogbill, of Chesterfield, went down to the inquest to collect the facts in the matter. The au-

The new oyster law went into effect on September 1st, and under its provisions the resources of the State have been largely increased. Governor McKinney, in his message to the Legislature at the beginning of last session, in urging that some oyster law be enacted, took the ground that the resources of the State derived from the oyster industry could be raised to about $40,000 a year. Be Careful. Be careful of your manners, they indi-cate your breeding.

Be careful of your thoughts, for they form your life.

Be careful of your actions, for they re-veal your character. Be careful of your associates; you are judged by the company you keep.

Be careful of your family and your friends; they are the best gifts the Al-mighty can give you. Be careful of your health; it is a bless-ing tnat can never be too highly valued; it is simply priceless.

Be careful of the first signs of a cough, cold or weakness; they are the forerunners of disease.

Be careful in what way you counteract a cough or cold, and remember there is nothing which does it so well as a pure stimulant.

Be careful that you secure the purest and the best, and remember that doctors and scientists agree that no whisky equals Duffy's Pure Mait.

Duffy's Pure Mail.

Be careful that you take this great preparation promptly, and in a systematic manner. Remember that a "stitch in time saves nine," and that your health and happiness may depend upon it.

Be careful that you are not persuaded to take something else which may be called "just as good" by your druggist or grocer. Insist upon having Duffy's Pure Malt, which is the only pure, medicinal whisky in the market. Rendezvous.
